ABOUT RESEARCH REVIEW SERVICE:

RRS is an online service for chiropractors and other manual therapists designed to help you stay current on emerging scientific literature affecting your profession.

Each week, a new review is posted, summarizing, analyzing, and contextualizing a recent, peer-reviewed article in the area of chiropractic, physiotherapy, rehabilitation, sports injuries, acupuncture, or exercise sciences. The reviews are concise and comprehensive, facilitating practical understanding of research methods and results.

When you subscribe to the Research Review Service, you are joining a community of subscribers from over 15 countries worldwide!

Technical Support:

If you require technical assistance at any time, please email RRS Tech Support at: support@researchreviewservice.com.

We hope you enjoy the Research Review Service!

Best Regards,

Dr. Shawn Thistle, Founder and President
